

Broad River Basin Water Resources Plan and Hydrologic Model
Third Stakeholders' Meeting – Tuesday, Oct. 11th, 2011
City of Shelby's Jerry W. Clay Utilities Operations Center, 824 W. Grover Street, Shelby, NC 28510

Sponsored by the Division of Water Resources, NC DENR

EVENT – The Division of Water Resources (DWR), Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) will host the third public meeting related to the planning process for the Broad River Basin Water Resources Plan and the development of the Broad River Basin Hydrologic Model on:

Tuesday, Oct. 11th, 2011, 1:00pm - 3:00pm

PURPOSE – The DWR staff and HydroLogics, Inc. will:

- provide detailed information and an update on the planning process;
- present the current development of the hydrologic model for review, particularly data on municipal surface water and wastewater treatment operations, interconnections, system operating rules, and Water Shortage Response Plans;
- provide preliminary model results of current and future demand scenarios; and
- receive information and comments from the public.

DWR particularly encourages participation by municipal and other large surface water users and dischargers.

PARTICIPATION – The stakeholders' meeting is free and open to the public. DWR encourages attendance and participation onsite or via live webcast.

No notice or registration is required. However, indication of intent to attend onsite or via the webcast would allow DWR to better plan for the event. You may indicate your intent to participate by reply to this E-mail or by mail, phone, or E-mail contact as below. For live web attendance, please visit <https://DENR.ncgovconnect.com/DWRBroad> prior to the meeting to check for compatibility, to get additional instruction or update, and then to participate in the live webcast. Free computer access is available at some public libraries.

LOCATION – City of Shelby's Jerry W. Clay Utilities Operations Center, 824 W. Grover Street, Shelby, NC 28510.
